IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

BRENDA ARMSTRONG, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

No. C 13-03113 WHA

v.

MCKESSON CORPORATION, a
California corporation, SMITHKLINE
BEECHAM CORPORATION d/b/a/
GLAXOSMITHKLINE LLC, a corporation, and DOES 1–100, inclusive,

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO REMAND AND DENYING MOTION TO STAY AND VACATING HEARING

Defendants.

In this pharmaceutical products-liability action, plaintiffs move to remand to state court for lack of federal jurisdiction while defendants move to stay all proceedings pending potential transfer to an MDL. For the reasons stated below, plaintiffs' motion to remand is GRANTED and defendants' motion to stay is DENIED. The hearing on September 12, 2013, is VACATED.

Plaintiffs filed a complaint in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of San Francisco in June 2013 for alleged injuries from the use of Avandia, a prescription pharmaceutical used to treat type-2 diabetes. Among other defendants, plaintiffs filed suit against McKesson Corporation, a California-based pharmaceutical distributor. Defendant GlaxoSmithKline LLC removed the action to federal court on fraudulent joinder grounds and moved to stay this action pending transfer to the Avandia MDL in the United States District

1 Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Plaintiffs then filed a motion to remand, arguing
2 that this Court should first consider the merits of its motion before entertaining any stay of these 3 proceedings.

4 Our court of appeals has not yet addressed whether courts must first decide the merits
5 of a motion to remand before determining whether to stay the proceedings. Generally speaking,
6 a stay is warranted if this would serve judicial economy. See, e.g., In re iPhone Application
7 Litig., No. 10-5878, 2011 WL 2149102, at *2 (N.D. Cal. May 31, 2011) (Judge Lucy Koh).
8 In similar actions involving Avandia, courts in this district have granted a stay. Those courts
9 found that doing so would promote judicial economy because the MDL judge has addressed 10 issues of “fraudulent joinder, fraudulent misjoinder of plaintiffs, the forum defendant rule, and 11 questions relating to removal by defendants who have not yet been served.” See, e.g., Poff v.
12 McKesson, No. 13-3115, 2013 WL 3949207, at *2 (N.D. Cal. July 30, 2013) (Judge Jeffrey
13 White); see also Flores v. McKesson, No. 13-3153 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 2, 2013) (Judge Jon Tigar);
14 Alvarez v. McKesson, No. 13-3112 (N.D. Cal. July 24, 2013) (Judge Thelton Henderson).
15 Given, however, the circumstances of the instant action, namely that the MDL has already 16 remanded similar actions because it found that McKesson had not been fraudulently joined, this 17 order finds differently.

18 The question of whether a motion to stay, pending transfer to an MDL, should be decided
19 before a motion to remand occurs frequently. It is best to rule in the way that most furthers
20 judicial economy, unless this would unreasonably prejudice one of the parties. Thus, when a
21 jurisdictional issue has not yet arisen before the MDL, a motion to stay has been denied and the 22 action remanded to state court because burdening the MDL with a new jurisdictional issue would 23 not be in the interest of judicial economy. Marble v. Organon, No. 12-2213, 2012 WL 2237271,
24 at *3 (N.D. Cal. June 15, 2012). Where, however, other cases pending before the MDL have 25 raised the same jurisdictional issue, a stay was granted because it would be in the interest of 26 judicial economy to have all these issues decided together. See, e.g., Addison v. Bristol-Meyers
27 Squibb Co., No. 13-2166, 2013 WL 3187859, at *1 (N.D. Cal. June 21, 2013).

1 Here, the MDL has already ruled on the jurisdictional issue at stake. Defendant GSK
2 removed the action to federal court on July 3, 2013. Plaintiffs' supplemental briefing shows,
3 however, that no defendant had been served on that date. The MDL found that "when no
4 defendant has been served, but a forum defendant has been named, the citizenship of the 5 forum defendant may not be ignored for purposes of Section 1441(b)" and removal is proper.
6 In re Avandia, 624 F. Supp. 2d 396, 411 (E.D. Pa. 2009) (Judge Cynthia Rufe). Under these 7 circumstances, judicial economy would not be served by a transfer to the MDL only to have the 8 MDL court remand the action back to state court.

9 GSK concedes that it had not been served with the complaint when it removed the case
10 and that upon its information and belief, McKesson had also not been served (Dkt. No. 1 at 5).
11 MDL Judge Cynthia Rufe has already found that in this specific fact pattern, a remand is proper:
12 "[b]ecause removal occurred before any Defendant was served, the Court will . . . remand the 13 action." In re Avandia, 624 F. Supp. 2d at 422.

14 This order is not persuaded by GSK's contention that it would suffer prejudice if a stay is 15 denied when it removed the action from state court despite the MDL's ruling that such removal
16 is improper. To the contrary, it would cause undue prejudice to plaintiffs to be forced to file and 17 argue motions to remand in two different courts before being sent back to square one — state
18 court, where this action belongs.

19 This order is likewise unpersuaded by GSK's argument that claims against McKesson are 20 preempted by the Supreme Court's decision in PLIVA, Inc. v. Mensing, 131 S. Ct. 2567 (2011).
21 A preemption defense goes to the merits of a plaintiff's case and cannot overcome the strong
22 presumption against removal jurisdiction. Hunter v. Philip Morris USA, 582 F.3d 1039, 1045
23 (9th Cir. 2009). GSK also argues that this action is nonetheless removable under Section 1332.
24 Not so. The MDL has decided that in actions like this one, McKesson was not fraudulently
25 joined. Diversity as required by Section 1332(2)(a) is therefore lacking. The action is also not
26 removable under CAFA, because removal of a mass action under CAFA requires that the action
27 involves at least 100 plaintiffs. 28 U.S.C. 1332(d)(11)(B)(I). That requirement is not met in the 28 present action.

1 GSK will not be granted a stay since the MDL has already made clear this action should
2 be remanded. GSK's motion to stay is therefore DENIED and plaintiffs' motion to remand is 3 GRANTED. The September 12 hearing is VACATED. The Clerk shall REMAND the action to 4 the Superior Court for the County of San Francisco.
